The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, June 15, 2012 to June 14, 2013)

The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, June 15, 2014 to June 14, 2015)

2. College Organized Judo Karate Training Camp – for Self Defences as well as organized Vote Awareness Programme. & Swachhata Abhiyan

Provide the details in annexure (Annexure-IV)*

7.4 Contribution to environmental awareness / protection

1. No vehicle day was observed.
2. Tree Plantation in front of the college.
3. College campus is Tobacco, Guthaka free

7.5 Whether environmental audit was conducted? Yes - No No

7.6 Any other relevant information the institution wishes to add. (for example SWOT Analysis)

Strength- Ours College is the women College therefore we get the opportunity to empower the second half of the society.

Weaknesses: No Funds for outside agencies & no major, minor research projects till today.

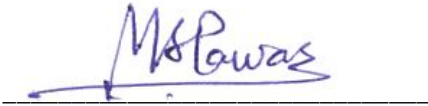

Opportunities:- Though most of the students are from weaker section, our faculty members take the opportunity & Motivate to upgrade them educationally and socially.

Threats: Our is the Arts faculty Therefore the student face the lack of technical knowledge to prove themselves in today's competitive world.
